An Enthralling Journey into the World of Three Extraordinary Women

Immerse yourself in the fascinating lives and remarkable art of Mary Cassatt, Suzanne Valadon, and Solari with "Cassatt, Suze, Solari: A Triumph of Women in Impressionism." This meticulously researched and beautifully illustrated book delves into the personal and artistic journeys of these trailblazing women, capturing their struggles, triumphs, and groundbreaking contributions to the Impressionist movement.

Mary Cassatt: The American Master

Mary Cassatt, born into a wealthy American family, defied societal expectations and pursued her passion for art. She became a pioneer of Impressionism, capturing intimate scenes of motherhood and domestic life, and breaking new ground in color and composition. Her unique perspective and innovative techniques earned her a prominent place in the art world.

Suzanne Valadon: The Bohemian Spirit

Suzanne Valadon, a self-taught artist who rose from humble beginnings, gained recognition for her bold and expressive paintings. Her unconventional lifestyle and relationships with artistic luminaries of her time, such as Renoir and Degas, enriched her work with a raw authenticity and emotional depth.

Solari: The Enigmatic Parisian

Solari, a mysterious and enigmatic figure, is only recently being rediscovered by art historians. Her sensual and atmospheric paintings, often depicting women in intimate and provocative poses, pushed the boundaries of Impressionism and left a lasting impact on modern art.

Their Legacy: Inspiring Generations

Together, Mary Cassatt, Suzanne Valadon, and Solari shattered the glass ceiling for women in art. Their courage, determination, and artistic brilliance paved the way for countless female artists. "Cassatt, Suze, Solari" examines their enduring legacy and their profound influence on the art world and beyond.
