Unveil the Hidden Gems of a Caribbean Paradise

Nestled amidst the turquoise waters of the Caribbean Sea, the British Virgin Islands beckon travelers with their unspoiled beauty and laid-back luxury. From the pristine sands of Tortola to the vibrant reefs of Virgin Gorda, this archipelago offers a captivating blend of natural wonders and cultural charm. With Fodor's British Virgin Islands Full Color Travel Guide 26, you'll have everything you need to plan the perfect escape.

Discover the Highlights of Tortola

As the largest island in the BVI, Tortola is a vibrant hub of activity and a gateway to the archipelago's many treasures. Begin your journey at Road Town, the bustling capital with its colorful buildings and lively waterfront. Explore the island's verdant interior, where lush rainforests are home to exotic birds and rare orchids. Don't miss the stunning views from Sage Mountain National Park, the island's highest point.

Explore the Pristine Beaches of Virgin Gorda

Just a short ferry ride from Tortola lies the exquisite island of Virgin Gorda. Step ashore and be greeted by pristine white-sand beaches, crystal-clear waters, and dramatic granite boulders. Sunbathe on the renowned Baths, where massive rocks have formed unique and secluded pools. Snorkel or dive in the protected waters of Gorda Peak National Park, teeming with vibrant marine life.

Sail Away to Jost Van Dyke

Escape the crowds and sail to the tranquil shores of Jost Van Dyke. This small island is a haven for sailors and beach lovers alike. Anchor in White Bay and enjoy swimming, snorkeling, and sunbathing in its idyllic waters. Take a hike to Great Harbour and discover the charming shops and restaurants that line the waterfront.

Discover the Natural Wonders of Anegada

Step off the beaten path and visit the remote island of Anegada, a flat coral atoll with a unique ecosystem. Marvel at the Horseshoe Reef, one of the largest coral reefs in the Caribbean. Explore the island's vast salt ponds, a haven for migratory birds. Visit the Anegada Iguana Sanctuary and encounter the endangered Anegada rock iguana.
