Book Excerpt

In Horses Never Lie, Mark Rashid shares his insights into the world of horses and leadership. He shows how horses can teach us about the importance of patience, presence, and connection. Rashid also reveals how we can use these principles to become more effective leaders in our own lives.

One of the most important lessons that Rashid teaches is the importance of being present. He says, "When you're with a horse, you have to be there, 100%. You can't be thinking about anything else. You have to be totally focused on the horse." This same principle applies to leadership. When we are present, we are able to connect with our followers and build trust. We are also able to make better decisions and respond more effectively to challenges.

Rashid also emphasizes the importance of patience. He says, "Horses don't rush. They take their time and do things at their own pace." This can be a difficult lesson for leaders to learn, but it is essential. When we are patient, we are able to build relationships and trust. We are also able to make better decisions and avoid making costly mistakes.

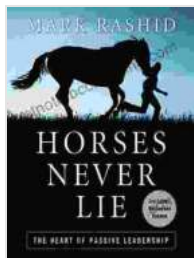

Horses Never Lie is a must-read for anyone who wants to improve their leadership skills. Rashid's insights are invaluable, and his stories are both inspiring and educational.
