In Hot Times, we take you on a journey through this extraordinary country. We'll explore its rainforests, climb its volcanoes, and swim in its waters. We'll meet the people of Panama, learn about their culture, and experience the country's vibrant nightlife. And we'll do it all with a sense of adventure and a love of life.

The Rainforests of Panama

Panama's rainforests are some of the most biodiverse in the world. They are home to a staggering array of plants and animals, from towering trees to tiny insects. The rainforests are also home to some of Panama's most iconic wildlife, such as the jaguar, the sloth, and the howler monkey.

We'll explore the rainforests of Panama on foot, by boat, and by canopy tour. We'll hike through the jungle, searching for wildlife. We'll float down rivers, taking in the scenery. And we'll zip-line through the canopy, getting a bird's-eye view of the rainforest.

The Volcanoes of Panama

Panama is home to several active volcanoes, including Baru Volcano, the highest point in the country. These volcanoes are a constant reminder of the country's geological history, and they offer some of the most stunning views in Panama.

We'll climb Baru Volcano, and we'll hike to the summit of El Valle Volcano. We'll also visit the hot springs of Boquete, which are heated by the volcanic activity below.
