From the depths of a gamma-irradiated accident, a legendary superhero was born.

For over half a century, the Incredible Hulk has captivated audiences with his raw power, tragic backstory, and unwavering determination. This definitive collection brings together the best of the Hulk's comic book adventures from 1962 to 1999, spanning over 1,000 pages of iconic storytelling.

The Origins of a Monster

In 1962, Stan Lee and Jack Kirby unleashed the Incredible Hulk upon the world in the pages of The Incredible Hulk #1. Scientist Bruce Banner, fueled by a desperate attempt to save a life, is transformed into a monstrous green behemoth by a burst of gamma radiation. With each surge of anger, the Hulk emerges, a fearsome force that threatens both Banner and the world around him.

The Evolution of a Hero

Over the years, the Hulk has evolved from a mindless brute to a complex and often sympathetic anti-hero. Through the masterful storytelling of legendary comic book creators like Stan Lee, Jack Kirby, Roy Thomas, Herb Trimpe, and John Byrne, the Hulk has become a beloved icon of American pop culture.

This definitive collection showcases the Hulk's transformative journey, from his early battles with the Fantastic Four and the Avengers to his iconic battles with the Abomination, Magneto, and the Leader. Witness the Hulk's struggles with his own identity, his desire for peace, and his unwavering determination to protect the innocent.
