A Cast of Unforgettable Characters

Simon's enchanting writing style brings to life a cast of memorable characters who add to the festive chaos. Henry's grumpy older brother, Perfect Peter, is the epitome of well-behaved boredom, while his clueless parents struggle to keep up with his antics. The addition of Henry's irate grandmother, Granny Purple, provides a hilarious perspective that keeps the laughter flowing.

The True Meaning of Christmas

Beneath the layers of mischief, Horrid Henry Christmas also explores the heartwarming themes of love, family, and the true meaning of Christmas. Through his escapades, Henry discovers that being nice doesn't always come easy but that it's worth striving for, even if just for the sake of Christmas presents.

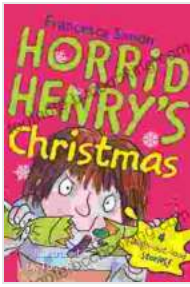

A Timeless Christmas Classic

Horrid Henry Christmas is a timeless classic that will delight children and adults alike. Francesca Simon's witty writing and Tony Ross's charming illustrations create a captivating world that will transport readers of all ages into the spirit of Christmas. Whether you're a long-time fan of Horrid Henry or discovering him for the first time, this festive tale is guaranteed to bring endless laughter and a newfound appreciation for the naughty side of Christmas.
