And we were young Perhaps someday I shall not shrink in pain
Although you can not hear

Violets, roses, laurel, with the small sweet twinkling country
things
Poppies whose roots
are man's vein

The darkness crumbles away
Here we lie dead
Sprawled in the bowels of the Earth

The Next War

War's a joke for me and you,
Wife we know such dreams are true,
- Siegfried Sassoon

Out there, we've walked quite friendly up to Death, - Sat down and eaten with him, cool and bland, - Paritoned his spilling mess-tins in our hand,
We've sniffed the green thick odour of his breath, -
Our eyes wept, but our courage didn't writhe, He's spat at us with bullets and he's coughed Shrapnel, We chorussed when he sang aloft,
We whistled while he shaved us with his scythe.

Oh, Death was never enemy of ours!
We laughed at him, we leagued with him, old chum,
No soldier's paid to kick against His powers,
We laughed, -knowing that better men would come,
And greater wars: when each proud fighter brags
He wars on Death, for lives; not men, for flags.

Wilfred Owen
